

Comments from Elementus Employees

Paul Phillips
Head of Customer Sales and Service

What do you like about working for Elementus?
"The best thing about my job is having the opportunity to regularly meet very happy customers with fantastic Elementus consultants!"

Paulina Targosz
Customer Sales and Service Deputy Manager

What do you like about working for Elementus?
"I think it is the variety of the tasks, locations and mixture of customers I deal with that I really enjoy"

Emily Tomkinson
Customer Sales and Service Consultant

Why did you choose to work for Elementus?
"I really enjoy customer interaction and wanted to find a role that incorporated this, coupled with the stimulus of changing environments and people"

Adam Curtis
Marketing Coordinator

What do you like about working for Elementus?
"I like the fact that everyone knows each other, it's a really friendly environment and I have had the opportunity to develop a variety of skills. I learn new things all the time!"

- Continues -

Kim Sim
Customer Sales and Service Manager

What do you like about working for Elementus?

"I get to manage my own time, with fresh challenges every day. The people I work with are all friendly, down to earth characters. I also get to see many amazing buildings across the UK, and see the inner workings and behind the scenes."

Tom Nicklin
Customer Sales and Service Consultant

What do you like about working for Elementus?

"I like being a customer-facing member of the team and meeting a variety of people from all walks of life. I have to regularly problem solve and investigate areas to make accurate recommendations to our customers. I also get to travel across the globe as part of my work in Europe and the Middle East."

Mike Ayling
Customer Sales and Service Manager

What do you like about working for Elementus?

"I get very excited about all the good things that happen day to day at Elementus, That's why I've been here 18 years!"

